

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

INFORMATION SERVICES

49.2
Loyola
OF MONTREAL

Visiting Lecturer

The Abbé Germain Marc'hadour

speaks on:

"THOMAS MORE, THE MAN WHO LOST HIS HEAD AND HAD NO HARM".

WHEN: October 23, 1970
at 8.00 P.M.

WHERE: ROOM 301 ADMINISTRATION BUILDING.

A lecturer of international renown, Father Marc'hadour was born in Brittany on April 16, 1921. He has distinguished himself as a specialist in Renaissance through his many books and articles on More, Erasmus and others. He is also editor of Moreana, a quarterly periodical begun in 1963 and devoted to Thomas More and his circle.

This lecture is sponsored by the English Department.

-30-